LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

1. Prevention of Crime and Disorder.

Focus: To stop criminal activity, including violence, theft, and public disorder, at licensed premises.

Considerations: Implementation of CCTV systems with police access. Requirements for security staff and searches of patrons. Notifying the police of applications and providing reasons for their objections.

2. Public Safety

Focus: Ensuring the physical safety of everyone using the premises, including staff and customers.

Considerations: Physical measures for building safety and emergency exits. Measures to prevent overcrowding and fire hazards. Ensuring staff are trained in health and safety procedures.

3. Prevention of Public Nuisance

Focus: Protecting residents and the community from significant disturbances, such as excessive noise, litter, and light pollution.

Considerations: Managing noise levels through acoustic management plans. Controlling litter outside the premises.

Responsible waste management practices.

4. Protection of Children from Harm

Focus: Safeguarding children and young persons from any form of harm, including moral, psychological, and physical harm.
Considerations: Age verification procedures for the sale of alcohol. Ensuring child-appropriate environments within the premises. Preventing the employment of children in certain activities.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Implementing an anti-drugs policy, maintaining a drugs register, employing trained door staff (as and when required); restricting irresponsible drink promotions; ensuring a Customer Code of Conduct is displayed and enforced to deter anti-social behavior; security reviews; staff training on vigilance and reporting suspicious activity, and working with the police to prevent issues like illegal working and drug misuse.

c) Public safety

Physical Safety: Focusing on the structural integrity of the premises, including adequate means of escape, safe capacity levels, and appropriate management of crowds.

Risk Assessment: Conducting risk assessments to demonstrate that safety has been considered and addressed for the activities taking place on the premises.

Applicant Responsibility: Ensuring the premises are safe for both staff and the public, both inside and immediately outside the building.

Implementing Safe Conditions: Setting and maintaining safe maximum capacities for the venue, ensuring clear and unobstructed fire exits, and having well-trained staff to manage crowds. Ensuring the number of people within a venue does not exceed its safe capacity. Installing clear signage for emergency exits and ensuring they are not blocked.

Using Security Measures: Employing door supervisors (as and when required) for maintaining order, preventing anti-social behaviour, and ensuring patrons are safely managed at the entrances and exits of licensed premises. CCTV Systems: Using CCTV to monitor the premises for security and to deter crime, with footage being kept for a required period and accessible to police.

Collaboration: Working with authorities and relevant organisations.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Noise Control: Installing sound proofing, managing entertainment levels, ensuring quiet departures, and using outdoor areas responsibly.

Waste Management: Implementing effective systems for the collection and removal of waste and litter.

Odour Control: Ensuring kitchen extraction systems are properly maintained and vent at appropriate heights, away from sensitive neighbours.

Light Control: Designing and positioning outdoor lighting to avoid light spill or glare onto residential properties.

Customer Conduct: Signage and staff training to remind patrons to behave considerately, especially when leaving.

Monitoring: Regular checks by management to identify and address potential nuisance issues proactively.

e) The protection of children from harm

Preventing underage alcohol sales: Ensuring an age verification policy, such as "Challenge 21" or "Challenge 25". Prohibiting unsupervised sales.

Restricting access to premises: After midnight: Unaccompanied children under 16 are banned from licensed premises between midnight and 5 a.m. when alcohol is being served.

Primarily for alcohol sales: Children under 16 must be accompanied by an adult if they are on the premises when it is used primarily or exclusively for the sale of alcohol for on-site consumption.

Restricting the admission of children to certain films in line with the British Board of Film Classification (BBFC).

Restricting children's attendance at events that might include adult entertainment.

Ensuring a sufficient number of adult staff are present to supervise children.

Implementing measures like wristbands to differentiate over-18s from under-18s at mixed-age events.

Section 19 of 21

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
