Dilham Hall Retreats glamping site, which is licensed separately under a different premises licence. Guests may pre-purchase a bottle of wine or beers via the booking website at the time of booking. This is a single, pre-arranged purchase, not a delivery service or an on-demand supply available during a guest's stay.

Section 18 of 21

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

This application relates solely to a pre-arrival online wine and beer service for glamping guests, and the storage building at the farmyard from which it is supplied. It does not involve public access, on-site consumption at the point of sale, or any entertainment activity. The four licensing objectives will be promoted through: confirmation that the booker is aged 18 or over as a condition of booking, with age cross-checked against the payment card holder where feasible; secure, staff-only storage of alcohol within the licensed farmyard building; a controlled transport process along Oak Road limited to staffed hours; and delivery of alcohol only into guest pods, with no supply or consumption permitted at the farmyard storage building itself.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

The farmyard and the storage building itself are covered by CCTV. The storage building is not open to the public and is accessed only by authorised staff during staffed hours of 09:00-18:00. The building will be kept locked when unattended, with alcohol stored securely to prevent theft. Online orders are linked to a specific booking and guest, with a clear audit trail from purchase to placement in the pod, reducing any risk of diversion or misuse. As there is no public-facing point of sale or on-site consumption area at the storage building, the opportunity for crime and disorder connected with this activity is minimal.

c) Public safety

Alcohol is transported by staff via Oak Road from the farmyard storage building to the relevant glamping pod. Staff will be trained in safe handling and transport of the product, and vehicles used for transport will observe normal road safety practice on Oak Road. As this is a single pre-arranged placement completed before the guest's arrival, there is no risk associated with alcohol being carried or consumed by guests themselves during transport. The farmyard storage building will be kept free of hazards, with alcohol stored securely and safely.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

This activity is confined to staffed hours of 09:00-18:00 and involves no public gathering, music, or entertainment. Transport between the farmyard and the glamping site takes place via Oak Road using the same access already used for normal farm operations, so it introduces no additional noise, traffic pattern, or disturbance to neighbours beyond the farm's existing everyday activity.

e) The protection of children from harm

Under our Terms and Conditions, the person making the booking must be aged 18 or over, and this is confirmed by the booker at the time of booking. The pre-arrival wine or beer service can only be added by the named booker to their own booking, meaning the purchaser of alcohol is always the adult who has confirmed they are 18 or over as a condition of booking. Where feasible, the age of the booker is cross-checked against the payment card holder used for the booking as an additional safeguard. A record of this confirmation is retained with the booking. As the product is placed directly into the named guest's own pod ahead of arrival, rather than handed over in person, staff will cross-check the booking details before placement to confirm it corresponds to the adult booker's reservation.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
